HUMANE OFFICERS TO THE RESCUE

Rescuing victims of animal cruelty, healing their wounds and spirits, and finding them loving homes through adoption is the important and rewarding work of the Humane Society of Summit County.

We employ two full-time Humane Officers to enforce the laws to rescue and protect abused, abandoned, and neglected animals. Their work is demanding and often heartbreaking with nearly 900 cruelty cases each year.

Our Humane Officers investigate reports of animals without proper food, shelter, or water to large scale animal hoarding cases. They work tirelessly to bring animals to safety, prosecute offenders, and prevent future violations through education and support.

Pets like Bruce, pictured here, are rescued by HSSC every day. Following a call from a concerned citizen, Bruce was found by our Humane Officers in deplorable conditions and in need of immediate help. Bruce had been left to live outside tethered to a heavy chain and given only a discarded truck cap as shelter from the elements. Bruce’s body and spirit, neglected and forgotten, had become weak. He was underweight, dehydrated, and covered in dirt and dust. The light had left his eyes.

Our Humane Officers cited his owner for animal cruelty violations and brought Bruce to the shelter. Bruce may not have realized it then, but from that moment, his suffering was over.

At HSSC, Bruce transformed into a happy, healthy dog with just two months of veterinary care and attention from staff and volunteers. He gained nearly 20 pounds, his coat became shiny, and he began to trust people once again.

Like thousands of other animals rescued and rehabilitated by HSSC, Bruce found his happily ever after! In June, Bruce was adopted by a wonderful couple and their Great Dane. He has since adjusted very well to his new life as a member of a loving family.

The Humane Society of Summit County is dedicated to fulfilling our mission and ending the suffering of our community’s animals. As a nonprofit animal rescue organization, our success is dependent on the generosity of our community. Please join us in serving animals like Bruce and finding them the loving families they deserve. By becoming a partner in our lifesaving mission through a generous gift, YOU can make new beginnings possible!

RECORD-BREAKING KITTEN SEASON

While we rescue, heal, and adopt a wide variety of companion animals, we serve far more cats and kittens than any other kind of pet. In just the first six months of this year, HSSC rescued nearly 700 felines – surpassing last year’s numbers by over 33%!

With our resources stretched to the limit, our generous community rallied to assist us in any way possible. Supply donations and monetary gifts were essential in providing lifesaving veterinary care, nourishing formula and food, and warm bedding blankets. Over 20 families joined our feline foster program, volunteering their time, space, and compassion to diligently care for kittens and nursing mothers until they were ready for adoption. Interested adopters flocked to our shelter and opened their hearts and homes to hundreds of kittens and cats!

We are so thankful for the unwavering support of the cat lovers in our community!

IT’S PLAYTIME AT HSSC!
Inspired by the success of the national program “Dogs Playing for Life!”, we have begun to integrate canine playgroups into our enrichment activities! While our staff and dedicated volunteers spend a great deal of time walking and playing with our dogs each day, our dogs love playing with each other too! Remarkably, it has been shown that the physical exercise and mental stimulation gained from just 30 minutes of playgroup time is equivalent to a two hour walk. Following a playgroup session, dogs are less stressed, tend to exhibit calmer behavior in their kennels, and even have a higher potential to learn during training – all helping our dogs find their new homes faster!

SPACIOUS REFUGE HELPS SHY CATS
This year, HSSC added two new areas in our cat room for several of our cats to coexist outside of traditional enclosures. The refuges provide our more nervous and shy cats with ample space to relax and adjust to the new noises and happenings in the shelter. These special cats gain a better sense of privacy and security, helping them show their true selves to interested adopters!

We welcome you to visit our shelter to see all of our recent improvements and to meet all of our adoptable animals!
